"The days in which Isaiah loved were filled with sinful peril. Israel worshipped many gods and adhered to all kinds of evil. When sin surrounds you, you rarely notice its silent gathering. Such was the case with the prophet Isaiah.
It is true; he should have known better than to overlook Israel's compromise. He was a priest of God and served daily in the temple.
He knew the value of holiness. Yet sin in its quiet deception had stolen a place in his heart."

(from "Enter His Gates" by Charles Stanley)

REMEMBER.. Isaiah and Micah were contemporaries!!
